

Please deliver this seed order to Grumpy Gardener....

Grumpy is 80 something years old and has taken over the vegie garden.

He is flat out growing vegies for my son's restaurant.

I have set up a hydroponic greenhouse for him to grow stuff in as well.

He is a boy from down at the farm.

Growing vegies has got him off walking sticks and his electric scooter.

Ain't that neat!

I have no care about the cost. Just so cool to see him gaining maximum benefit from back to basics.

Oh, he does have a real name - Allen.

I am spoiled to have him doing garden chores.

Thanks heaps for your input. It is appreciated.

Regards

Martin Burrows
